In case the User prefers not to communicate mandatory and/or necessary data for the fulfillment of certain purposes, Rsportz reserves the right to not provide the service through its platform.

The use of the Platform may require the processing of personal data of third parties sent by you to the Controller. Compared to these assumptions, you act as an independent controller, assuming all the obligations and responsibilities of the law. In this sense, you grant the most extensive indemnity with respect to any dispute, claim, request for compensation for damage caused by processing, etc. that may be received by the Controller from third parties whose personal data have been processed in violation of the law on the protection of personal data applicable. In any case, if you provide or otherwise process personal data of third parties in the use of the Platform, you warrant as of now - assuming all related responsibility - that this particular case of processing is based on a suitable legal basis under Articles 6 and/or 9 of the GDPR that legitimizes the processing of information.

Users can ask for an explanation of the legal basis of each processing at any time.

Processing modalities

The processing of Personal Data will take place through automated and/or manual tools in order to ensure proper security measures to prevent access, disclosure, loss, incorrect, illegal or unauthorized use of data.

Data Sharing

Your Personal Data may be shared with the following subjects, on a need-to-know basis and in accordance with Applicable Privacy Laws: (i) Internet service providers and platforms used by the Controller as organization tools, channels of communication and/or promotion; (ii) People or Organizations involved in the activities such as Local organizations & Clubs, Sports Federations, International Organizations; (iii) to private and public health bodies for insurance, labor, social security, welfare purposes, for the control in a broad sense of the sporting fitness of the Company's members in accordance with federal regulations and for anti-doping requirements (e.g. communications to Anti-Doping Agencies and relevant organizations, both nationally and internationally); (iv) authorities, government agencies, or judicial courts to meet any applicable law, regulation, legal process, or enforceable governmental request..

These subjects act as autonomous data controllers or data processors. In the latter case, the Controller has signed a contract pursuant to Art. 28 GDPR (Data Protection Agreement or “DPA”).

Personal data will be processed by internal staff specifically authorized under Article 29 of the GDPR. The names of all authorized personnel are available under request to the Data Controller, at info@rsportz.com.

RSportz is responsible for the processing of personal data it receives under the EU-US DPF and Swiss-US DPF Data Privacy Frameworks and subsequently transfers to a third party acting as an agent on its behalf.

Data processing locations

Personal data are processed at the headquarters of the Controller, as well as in the servers that host the Platform. The Data Controller ensures that when using cloud providers established outside the EEA, the processing of personal data by these recipients is carried out in accordance with applicable law.

Transfers shall be carried out by means of appropriate safeguards, such as adequacy decisions, standard contractual clauses approved by the European Commission or other safeguards provided for in the GDPR.

Data Subjects' rights

The User may exercise all the rights provided for by Articles 15-21 of EU Reg. no. 679/2016, at any time and without unjustified limitations, by contacting the Data Controller at dpo@rsportz.com.

Requests shall be filed free of charge and processed by the Controller within 30 days. Specifically, the User can:

- Obtain from the controller confirmation as to whether or not personal data are being processed (Art.15);
- Obtain from the controller the rectification of inaccurate personal data (Art. 16);
- Obtain from the controller the erasure of personal data (Art. 17);
- Obtain from the controller restriction of processing (Art. 18);

- Have the right to receive the personal data in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and have the right to transmit those data to another controller (Art. 20);
- Have the right to object (Art. 21);

We will provide an individual opt-out choice, or opt-in for sensitive data, before we share your data with third parties other than our agents, or before we use it for a purpose other than which it was originally collected or subsequently authorized. To request to limit the use and disclosure of your personal information, please submit to dpo@rsportz.com.

Complaints and Arbitration pursuant to the Recourse, Enforcement and Liability Principle

In any case, Users are always entitled to lodge a complaint with the competent supervisory authority, under Art. 77 of the Regulation, if they believe that the Controller's processing of their Personal Data is in violation of the applicable law.

In compliance with the EU-U.S. DPF and the Swiss-U.S. DPF, RSportz, Inc. commits to resolve DPF Principles-related complaints about our collection and use of your personal information. EU and Swiss individuals with inquiries or complaints regarding our handling of personal data received in reliance on the EU-U.S. DPF and the Swiss-U.S. DPF should first contact RSportz, Inc. at:

Robin Kent
CEO
dataprivacyframework@rsportz.com

In compliance with the EU-U.S. DPF and the Swiss-U.S. DPF, RSportz commits to cooperate and comply respectively with the advice of the panel established by the EU data protection authorities (DPAs) and the Swiss Federal Data Protection and Information Commissioner (FDPIC) with regard to unresolved complaints concerning our handling of personal data received in reliance on the EU-U.S. DPF and the Swiss-U.S. DPF.

Under certain conditions specified by the principles of the EU-U.S. DPF and Swiss-U.S. DPF Data Privacy Framework, you may also be able to invoke binding arbitration to resolve your complaint. Additional information on this option is available in <https://www.dataprivacyframework.gov/s/>.

Amendments

The Controller reserves the right to amend and update the Privacy Policy as a result of any further new or revised provisions of any national and EU laws and regulations on personal data protection.
